It was a trip I'll never forget. It was a nice calm morning here in Seattle when I was just chilling in my room watching "Toto's bizarre adventure". Then, out of the blue, my older sister Emily called on my phone. She said: "You can't watch anime all day when it's so sunny outside. Come on, let's take our nice Judy in the woods!" Since watching "Toto" for a long period of time is challenging and I had already grown sick of it that day, I agreed. So I packed my bag and went to Emily. When I got there, I was a little bit confused. Instead of Emily's old Toyota Corolla I saw a nice rover with Emily and Judy already inside. "I borrowed this from my bf!", Emily shouted and smiled at me. As I got inside, we began our trip. Driving on a nice road near the forest in such a cool car was very bewildering, I could see Judy ~~enjoying~~ the trip so far. We stopped near the forest on the halfway to our destination to have lunch. Just after we got out of the rover, Judy noticed a squirrel with its leg trapped inside a metal soda can. She immediately got worried. "Why's there a soda can?", she asked. "Someone must have thrown it out of the car window", I replied. "Oh no! It can die! How can people be so ignorant about creatures that live here?!", Judy almost cried. We immediately packed up and drove to the nearest hospital, where the squirrel was freed from the can and healed. Judy, who was worried about the animal until that, felt relief and smiled.

She was so happy about the squirrel, so she laughed, and tears of joy came out of her eyes. Half the hospital cried with her.
