Students' feedback on school extracurricular events in numbers.

It's common knowledge that contemporary schools are aware of the fact that the school should not only provide the students with ~~the educational curriculum~~ the educational curriculum, but also develop their social skills by involving them into various activities. This report is to show the students' attitude towards their school events and the main reasons for attending them.

The highest percentage of students ~~asked~~ claimed an enjoyable experience ~~as a~~ ^{to be the} major reason for attending school events. 39% of the children named the "Popular annual event" reason the minor, which places ~~it~~ ^{it} on top of ~~the~~ ^{the} minor reasons. It's also important for the youngsters to meet up, support each other and get ~~educational~~ educational experience during an event held.

As our society is entering the post-industrial stage, it's hard not to emphasize the educational aspect. 50% (percent) of students claim education experience to be the major reason, whereas 29 percent name it minor. Also, referring to the introduction, we are to take a look at students' will to be involved in social activities: 53% of them name it major, 24% - minor.

I would highly recommend the organizers of school events to keep ~~on~~ ^{on} making these activities enjoyable as this reason is actually quite a trend among the youngsters. Plus, I'd happily outline that the majority of students are excited about meeting up with ~~their~~ friends and family, which ~~causes~~ ^{makes} them to spend less ~~time~~ ^(affected by the) social media and finally ~~get~~ ^{up to} some real-life social experience. Thus, I'd recommend to organize some ~~secondary~~ intellectual or sport family competitions.

The results are genuinely satisfying, nevertheless I hope next year ~~well get to the children to become more~~ students will be even more active and open-minded.
