School events play a significant role in school's life. Therefore, it's of paramount importance to have them organised perfectly. Having analysed the chart, I can give suggestions and recommendations concerning it.

To start with the most worthwhile thing is 'enjoyable experience'. For this option voted 88 percent of people. Some other options are also admired by more than a half of respondents. The percentages of them fluctuate slightly in 2 or 3 percent. The least popular is "popular annual event". Just 26 percent speculate it's major reason.

If we compare two aspects that have the equal number of people who find them as major reason - the second and the third ones in the chart - then, I should say the first out of two is more popular as the percentage of those who think it's worthless is almost twice less the percentage of the second one. And if we compare the second one with "popular annual event", both have almost the same percentage of indifferent people. But still "popular annual event" is less popular, since less people consider it as major reason.

As you may observe only the first aspect managed to woo students brilliantly. Thus, I strongly recommend to improve the rest points. For example to imply more educational things or to make "popular annual event" more attractive by organising contests or giving away prizes.

All in all, the statistics are quite fine, because 5 out of 6 are highly admired by more than half of the students. So you need to preserve the things that could affect it badly in order to keep this trend going on.
