The town of Kungur.

Places of interest.

SP
-1

Kungur is a 400-year-old town in Perm Krai that can cater all needs of an average tourist. As a merchant town in the past, it has many historical buildings such as churches, mansions, and shops. The most famous attraction of Kungur is the Ice Cave, which is covered in ice all year.

Food and transport.

Kungur is famous for its gingerbread and caramel candies, which have zero calories in them. Not long ago the same factory started producing lemonade with a revitalizing effect.

As for the transport, you can ride a horse like people did in the old times. And don't worry about the traffic, because most citizens drive flying vehicles these days.

✓

Things to know.

Most Kungur citizens work and study from home. All office and school devices are integrated with personal computers thanks to the modern software. So don't be surprised that all banks and office centers have shortened working hours.

The streets of the town are always crowded for the same reason. But don't worry: there's always something interesting going on. People like singing, dancing, and playing on the street, and they love it when the tourists join them.

If you want to enjoy historical sights with all pleasures of modern life, then Kungur is the perfect choice.
